Biography:

We are privileged to have Dr John Marshall from the Weipers Equine Hospital, University of Glasgow to deliver this seminar on equine lameness and diagnostic imaging. Dr. John Marshall graduated from the University of Glasgow in 2003 before moving to the USA to complete an internship in Equine Medicine and Surgery at North Carolina State University (NCSSU). He then moved to Oklahoma State University (OSU) to undertake a residency position in Equine Surgery. Following successful completion of the residency, Dr Marshall returned to NCSU and undertook a PhD studying the equine gastrointestinal system and non-steroidal anti-inflammatory drugs (NSAIDs). After receiving his PhD in 2010, he returned to the University of Glasgow as a Lecturer in Equine Surgery. Dr Marshall is a recognised specialist in equine surgery, and a Diplomate of both the American and European Colleges of Veterinary Surgery. His research interests include NSAIDs, objective assessment of lameness and diagnostic imaging, and equine colic.
