Scientific Conference 2016

Veterinary Pathology
For All

28th - 31st July 2016

M Suites Hotel, Johor Bahru,
Johor Darul Takzim.

Introduction

The brightest diadem in the crown of Johor, its capital of Johor Bahru welcomes you to the 8th Malaysian Association of Veterinary Pathology (MAVP) Conference, which will be held from 28th to 31st of July 2016. The theme, "Veterinary Pathology for All" bears hope this conference will focus on pathology, diagnostic tools, treatment and epidemiology on a broader scale, attracting individuals who are directly and indirectly working in the field of veterinary pathology. We realize adequate training is required to ensure a solid background in pathology which is an asset to any institutions or organizations related to the veterinary field. Thus, a comprehensive scientific programme has been prepared which will include plenary and scientific presentations by a range of specialists in their chosen field. This conference aims to initiate, foster and nurture future networking collaboration, smart partnerships and assist in the advancement of veterinary pathology among researchers, academicians, government officials, veterinary practitioners, pharmaceutical officers and students. Hence, we invite all to share their enthusiasm and exhibit the spirit of knowledge sharing on the uniqueness of veterinary pathology via oral and poster scientific presentations. We hope to meet you in Johor Bahru, the country's second largest metropolitan area.
